1 Stone Mountain Park
Stone Mountain Park in Georgia is a 3,200-acre outdoor destination known for its massive granite mountain, scenic trails, and family attractions. Visitors enjoy hiking the Walk-Up Trail, riding the Summit Skyride, and exploring lakes, shows, and seasonal events.

2 Stone Mountain Golf Course
The Stone Mountain Golf Club features two scenic 18-hole courses—Stonemont (a classic, challenging layout) and Lakemont (with beautiful lake views and water hazards). Located inside Stone Mountain Park, it offers picturesque fairways, practice facilities, and a relaxed resort-style golf experience.

3 Stone Mountain Park Campground
Fantastic campground with wooded sites right on the lake. Hiking, biking, kayaking and lots more to do. Wonderful view of Stone Mountain and lake.

4 Stone Mountain Covered Bridge
The Stone Mountain Covered Bridge, built in 1891 by Washington W. King, is a historic wooden bridge relocated to Stone Mountain Park in 1965. Spanning a quiet section of Stone Mountain Lake, it's a popular spot for photos, picnics, and scenic walks.

5 Indian Island
Indian Island is a small, peaceful island in Stone Mountain Park, located right beside the historic Covered Bridge. Surrounded by calm lake waters, it's a popular spot for walking, picnicking, photography, and enjoying quiet views of the bridge and surrounding nature.

6 Quarry Exhibit Trail
The Quarry Exhibit Trail at Stone Mountain Park is a short, easy walking path that takes you through historic granite quarry sites with interpretive signs and old stonework. It's a peaceful, shaded trail that highlights the mountain's quarrying history and offers great photo spots.

7 Stone Mountain Grist Mill
The Stone Mountain Grist Mill is a historic 19th-century mill relocated to Stone Mountain Park in 1965. Set beside a small waterfall and lovely wooded scenery, it's a popular spot for photos, picnics, and relaxing nature walks near the Covered Bridge and Indian Island.
