1 Sequoia and Kings Canyon National Park
In the morning, you will depart from the Bay Area, San Francisco, for Sequoia National Park. The journey takes approximately 270 minutes, passing through scenic California highways, rolling farmland, and gradually rising mountain landscapes as you approach the Sierra Nevada. Along the way, you will witness a beautiful transition from urban surroundings to open countryside and dense forested terrain, setting the tone for a memorable day in nature.

2 General Sherman Tree
You will be taken to the iconic General Sherman Tree.It is the largest tree on Earth by volume and the highlight of Sequoia National Park, surrounded by the majestic Giant Forest filled with towering ancient sequoias. Visitors explore scenic walking trails through this remarkable grove, experiencing some of the most iconic giant trees in the world.This experience allows you to enjoy the natural beauty of the grove before returning to the parking area after 1 hour or so.

3 Crystal Cave
You will be taken to Crystal Cave, a beautiful marble cavern in Sequoia National Park featuring striking formations such as stalactites, stalagmites, and flowstone shaped over thousands of years. The cave offers a unique underground experience within the Sierra Nevada, showcasing nature's artistry beneath the surface, where you will explore its cool and peaceful atmosphere hidden beneath the forest.

4 San Francisco
After a memorable day exploring Sequoia National Park, including its giant sequoias, scenic trails, and iconic landmarks, the journey continues with the return drive back to the Bay Area, marking the end of the tour.
