Seattle
Starts at 6:00 AM, 6:30 AM, 7:00 AM, 7:30 AM · pickup up to 45 min earlier

1 The Quad - University of Washington
The University of Washington Quad is even more stunning during cherry blossom season ! The campus boasts over 800 Yoshino cherry trees, making it one of the best spots in the US for hanami (cherry blossom viewing). Peak bloom usually hits late March to early April. The Quad's picturesque setting, with blossoms framing the library and other buildings, draws crowds and photographers.

2 Washington Park Arboretum
Washington Park Arboretum is a stunning 230-acre oasis in Seattle, part of the University of Washington campus . This beautiful arboretum features over 1,000 plant species, including a renowned collection of conifers, Japanese maples, and a vibrant cherry blossom display. The scenic trails, gardens, and waterfront views make it perfect for a peaceful stroll or nature escape.

3 Seattle Japanese Garden
The Seattle Japanese Garden is a serene 3.5-acre oasis in Washington Park Arboretum . This authentic garden features traditional elements like k?ji stone lanterns, waterfalls, and a tranquil pond with k?tatsu bridges. With meticulously curated plants and seasonal blooms, it's a perfect spot for reflection or a peaceful stroll. Located near the University of Washington, it's a hidden gem in Seattle

4 Pike Place Market
Pike Place Market is Seattle's iconic, historic hub. This bustling marketplace on the waterfront features:
Fresh produce: Local fruits, veggies, meats, and seafood (like the famous fish toss!)
Craft vendors: Handmade goods, art, and gifts
Food & drinks: From fresh-baked pastries to seafood and coffee (visit the original Starbucks)
Street performers: Musicians, magicians, and more

5 Kerry Park
Kerry Park is a popular spot in Seattle offering breathtaking views of the city and beyond . Perched on a hill in the Queen Anne neighborhood, it features:
Iconic skyline views: Downtown Seattle, Space Needle, and the Olympics
Sunset magic: A favorite spot to catch the golden hour
Parks and greenery: Lush lawns and walking paths
A perfect blend of nature and urban beauty

6

Gas Works Park

Gas Works Park is a unique 19-acre park in Seattle's Wallingford neighborhood. Built on a former gasification plant, it features:
Industrial remnants: Old gas pipes and towers repurposed as art
Hilltop views: Panoramic vistas of Lake Union, downtown Seattle, and the Cascades
Kite-flying: Popular spot for kite enthusiasts
Picnic areas: Grassy spaces for relaxing
A quirky blend of nature and industrial history
