1 Quinault Rainforest
We enter the Quinault Rainforest and take a short hike amongst ancient trees, giant ferns, and other plants. The fresh air and surroundings of this temperate rainforest is a thrilling experience for a first time visitors and long time hikers. We take a rest stop at the Quinault Resort Lodge, which is where President Franklin D. Roosevelt stayed when he established Olympic National Park. The lodge has a perfect view of Lake Quinault.

2 Ruby Beach
We take walk along the gorgeous Ruby Beach. You will see large haystack rock formations and many logs strewn about the beach. This is raw and unique beach surprises many visitors. The beach is the one of the most beautiful beach.

3 Forks
Forks was featured in the Twilight vampire book and movies series. Lunch options include: A burger café, a BBQ spot, and Mexican spot.

4 Lake Crescent
Lake Crescent will be a good stop for photos, with amazing background. The Lake has many interesting history which would amaze you.

5 Bainbridge Island
Bainbridge Island is a vibrant, diverse community known for its natural beauty, rich history, and proximity to Seattle. It's a place where residents enjoy a blend of suburban living with easy access to urban amenities via a short ferry ride. The island offers a variety of attractions, including parks, gardens, museums, and a thriving arts and culture scene.
