1 Montezuma Castle National Monument
Marvel at one of the best-preserved cliff dwellings in North America. High above the desert floor, gaze up at the incredible 20-room structure built into a limestone cliff by the Sinagua people over 800 years ago. Take a peaceful walk along the shaded, sycamore-lined path while learning about the rich Native American history and culture of the region.

2 Jerome
Wind up the scenic mountain roads to explore this historic copper mining camp turned vibrant hillside artist community. Once proclaimed the "Wickedest Town in the West" by the New York Sun in 1903, Jerome offers an eclectic mix of ghost town history, unique local art galleries, and boutique shops. Wander the winding, steep streets while soaking in stunning panoramic views of the entire Verde Valley below.

3 Sedona
Immerse yourself in the breathtaking beauty of Sedona, surrounded by towering crimson red rock formations. Enjoy free time in Uptown Sedona to stroll through vibrant streets lined with unique Southwestern boutiques, local art galleries, and cafés with panoramic views. The perfect place to soak in the town's famous creative energy, grab a delicious lunch, and capture unforgettable photos of the majestic desert landscape.

4 Phoenix
After an amazing day exploring the history of Montezuma Castle, the charm of Jerome, and the stunning red rocks of Sedona, sit back and relax on a comfortable, scenic drive back to Phoenix to bring your unforgettable tour to an perfect end.
