1 Southfork Ranch

Step into television history on a privately guided tour of the iconic ranch made famous by the hit TV series Dallas. For thirteen unforgettable seasons, millions of viewers around the world followed the dramatic lives of the Ewing family — and today, you can walk the very grounds where the series was filmed.
Relive the glamour, power struggles, and unforgettable moments that made the show a global phenomenon. Who could forget the famous cliffhanger, “Who Shot J.R.?”
During your visit, your professional guide will remain with you throughout the entire experience, sharing behind-the-scenes stories, filming insights, and fascinating details about the characters and cast. Please note that our tour guides are among the only guides in Dallas officially approved to conduct privately guided tours of Southfork Ranch’s grounds, ensuring a fully immersive and exclusive experience.
Come see where television history was made and experience firsthand the lifestyle that made the Ewings legendary.

2 Southfork Ranch

Relive the show’s most dramatic and iconic moments as you explore a remarkable collection of original memorabilia and artifacts. See the famous gun involved in the “Who Shot J.R.?” storyline, Lucy’s wedding dress, and the detailed Ewing family tree that traces the dynasty’s powerful legacy.
Watch classic video clips and exclusive interviews with the cast, and view authentic costumes and props used during filming. Each display brings you closer to the glamour, drama, and larger-than-life personalities that made the Ewings television legends.
This immersive exhibit offers fans a nostalgic journey into one of the most influential and talked-about series in television history.

3 Southfork Ranch

Explore the scenic grounds of Southfork Ranch as you walk through more than 300 acres of beautifully maintained Texas ranchland with your private guide. Beginning at the Visitors Center and making your way toward the iconic Ewing Mansion, you’ll pass barns, open pastures, and livestock while hearing the rich history of the ranch and its transformation into a television landmark.
Along the way, see authentic Texas Longhorn cattle, llamas, miniature horses, and even Eeyore the donkey. Notice the flagpoles proudly displaying the flags of the 96 countries where the hit TV series Dallas was broadcast — a testament to the show’s worldwide popularity.
Before entering the mansion, stop at the original swimming pool where memorable scenes were filmed, including Bobby’s pool moments and Lucy sunbathing with her friends. It’s the perfect opportunity to relive classic memories before stepping inside the legendary Ewing home.
